

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HYDROGEOLOGISTS

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

The International Association of Hydrogeologists (IAH) invites companies who work in the field of groundwater and the environment to become corporate members of the Association. Corporate membership of IAH will provide promotional opportunities for your company, give groundwater professionals on your staff the benefits of personal membership of the Association and improve the resources of IAH to carry out its mission. IAH is the premier, truly international organisation for scientists and engineers working in the fields of groundwater resource planning, management and protection. We were founded in 1956 and have grown with the increasing environmental and social importance of groundwater to an organisation of over 3,500 members in 135 countries

The mission of the Association is:

- to advance public education and promote and disseminate research in hydrogeology;
- to promote understanding of issues relating to groundwater and its use and protection and to enhance the role of groundwater professionals.

The membership of IAH embraces professionals from many related disciplines who have the common goal of the better protection and use of groundwater for the benefit of mankind. IAH collaborates with other international association in water and earth science and engineering and participates in the international programmes of UNESCO, UNDP, WMO and FAO.

The benefits of corporate membership are as follows:

For the basic fee of $A790, a company who is a corporate member of IAH can nominate three of its employees to have a personal membership of the Association. As a member they will receive:

- Hydrogeology Journal (six issues per year);
- News and Information (three issues per year);
- Discount on IAH books published by Balkema;
- Periodic mailings with updates on conferences and other events of interest to groundwater scientists and engineers.

They will have the full membership and voting rights of any member of the Association.

At an additional fee of $A120 per person, the company can nominate up to a further three employees to also have personal membership.

Therefore, a corporate member of IAH can provide the benefits of IAH membership of six members of its professional staff for $A1150.

In addition the company will enjoy the following benefits:

- Electronic copy in all standard formats of the IAH membership address database, supplied on request for a one-time use during the year. Repeat use fee by negotiation.
- 50% discount on advertising space in News and Information
- Promotion opportunities at IAH Congresses and other exposure as a corporate sponsor in IAH publicity
- Recognition of corporate sponsorship in the IAH Directory and on the IAH Web Site.

An application form for corporate membership is overleaf.
